Kaiser's Troops in Southern Russia Begin Offensive.

Bolsheviki Order Workmen and Peasants to Colors in Effort to London, June 19 .- German troops in southern Russia began an offensive eastward on the Voronesh front on June 15, says a Russian government wireless message. The Germans are advancing in the Varniska, Rostov and Vetluisk regions.

Foreign Minister Tchitcherin has informed Ambassador Joffe at Berlin of the German aggression and that the German commander on the Voronesh front had proposed a new boundary

The bolshevik war department has ordered the mobilization of all workmen and peasants born from 1893 to to 1897 in a large number of provinces. The men are called for six months' active service and those refusing to serve will be punished severely by revolutionary tribunals.

The central executive committee of the Russian soviets took a drastic step in deciding to expel those of its members representing the social revolutionists, the right, the center and the mensheviki, according to a Russian wireless message received here.

All local councils are asked to expel representatives of the same parties. Explaining the step, the message says:

"The authority of the council presiding through an extremely difficult period is being attacked simultaneously by international imperialism on all fronts, and its coadjutors within the Russian republic who are in conflict against the government of the workmen and peasants. They employ the most contemptible means, including shameful calumny, conspiracy and re-

Geneva, June 19.-The enthusiasm created by the first German offensive has passed and a feeling of profound dejection reigns among the German people, according to an interview with a neutral diplomat who has just arrived in Geneva from Berlin, in La Suisse. The people at home expected a quick victory from the early re ports in official bulletins and above all a quick peace. The principal question asked in Berlin last week

WAS: "Have we entered Paris?" The economic situation in the interior of Germany, the diplomat declared, is becoming more and more se-
